

Cougar Daily's "The Potty Mouth"

10/3/22 – 10/8/22

Read and learn while you pee and poo

There is a new sheriff in town, Potty Mouth enjoyers, so sit down, or continue sitting I guess, and buckle up for a wildly similar ride. If you were tired of the mundane and stale writing of my counterpart, I hope this brings more spice to your bathroom excursion. In this edition, we will take a look into the rules of October and give you a look at what's been going on with your fellow Coronado Cougars.

The Dos and Don'ts of October

For those of you that are grammar snobs: it's not a typo, "dos" is plural, not possessive.

The leaves are starting to change, and the summer heat is beginning to fade into brisker days and chillier nights. October brings little to look forward to, other than the obvious 31st night, but what do we do until then? Is it time to start the spooky celebrations? Or should we wait to put out the ghouls and ghosts? Many are confused, and "The Potty Mouth" is always here to help, so here is a list of the Dos and Don'ts for the beginning of October:

1. DO: Keep an eye out for new Spirit Halloweens. They will be everywhere soon enough.
2. DON'T: Use the phrase, "spooky season" anymore- please.
3. DO: Start getting together a plan for your Halloween costumes because we all know it will take a month to coordinate and actually get the supplies.
4. DON'T: Wear scarfs. Is only your neck cold?
5. DO: Continue to go to sporting events to support your Cougars!
6. DON'T: Forget to bring a blanket and a couple bucks to buy a hot chocolate at the football games.
7. DO: Eat soup :)
8. DON'T: Post about your Pumpkin Spice Latte. Being basic is okay! Just not this time.

Fun Things Happening in Your Hallways

- The tennis team made it to State! Mr. Philipsen announces, "That's pretty cool!"
- New Trend Alert: kids everywhere are deviously licking trash from the ground and hiding it in trash cans. If you want to be cool, try it out for yourself!
- The Homecoming Montage by KUGR TV is out now! Check it out.
- Been craving Chipotle? Head over to the GOG location on 10/5 to support the Coronado Baseball team from 4-8 pm and get dinner for the whole fam.
- The Cougar Daily's Editors can beat anyone in a doubles volleyball tournament...not news but we felt like bragging.
- "The Potty Mouth" Request Form is back! Scan to have your team or club featured in the next issue!
