1/9/23 – 1/14/23

The Bathroom Sensation That's Sweeping the Nation

Alright Cougars, it's the start of a new year and new semester here at Coronado and if no one else has done it yet, let me be the first to officially welcome you to 2023! Regardless of what you celebrate, I hope your holidays were amazing and that you're feeling fully refreshed to get a good jumpstart on second semester. I know it's a bit tough to settle back into the routine of waking up early and dragging yourself to school, but we're in the home stretch now, and it would be a real shame if we didn't make it. So, buckle up everyone, because we here at The Cougar Daily are fully prepared to help you through these last two quarters in the best way possible- making you cringe and laugh while you're in the bathroom!

Things To Celebrate as We Start the New Semester

- No finals for roughly 20 weeks!
- The basement is now mildew-free (hopefully-I'm writing this in December, so this is more manifestation than anything else)
- We're going through the transition from sledding snow to snowball snow.
- Valentine's day is in a little over a month, which gives us single people time to be happy until then.
- Track Season (I'm biased, I know, but if you aren't doing anything, give it some thought)
- Santa brought a lot of teachers new furniture! (Mr. Smith=Santa? Conspiracy?)
- Last week was only two days!
- The days are getting longer, the dark ages are starting to end.
- On Rick Astley's birthday (February 6th), the sun will set at approximately 5:26pm.
- Rick Astley is still alive (although, retired)
- Now is the perfect time to start planning for April Fool's Day.
- May 4th-11th is root canal awareness week!
- Seniors! You're done with school on May 16th. Everyone else has to wait another ten days.

Fun Things Happening in Your Hallways

- My fellow Seniors! You have like four and a half months left in high school. Scary, isn't it? Make the most of it!
- The Potty Mouth has been fully returned to its rightful owner! You guys are stuck with me for the rest of the year...no more pesky interruptions from she-who-must-not-be-named.
- Breaking News: This column would be a lot better if I was allowed to swear.
- Robotics Build Season is starting! There's still time to join the team...see Mr. McLean in room 407 if you're interested.
- The Senior group picture will be taken in the Main Gym on January 30th at 9:15 a.m. BEFORE SCHOOL! Put it on your calendars now.
- Potty Mouth Request Form. I will do my best to fit you in if your response is COMPLETE.
