

Cougar Daily's "The Potty Mouth"

11/28/22 – 12/3/22

The Bathroom Sensation That's Sweeping the Nation

Welcome back from what was (hopefully) a decently relaxing break from school, everyone. Before we get back into the swing of your usual bathroom routine, I want to take a moment to have a talk about something. As a society, we sometimes find ourselves defining one another based on our differences, and it seems that the world has become stuck in that mindset. It's so much easier to love and accept everyone for who they are and it's our job to be that change in the world. Someone's mere existence will never invalidate the life and experiences of someone else, so why not take the high road and choose to love people for their whole selves? Love everyone and know that you are loved, we're stronger together than we are apart.

Thanksgiving is Over. Now What?

Welcome to those awkward few weeks between Thanksgiving Break and Winter Break Everyone! It's a time full of anxiety, cold weather, and confusion. So, because I'm a helpful kind of guy, here are the answers to some of the questions you may have about the upcoming weeks.

Q: Should I be worried about Finals?

A: Don't be worried, but make sure you're well prepared. It really doesn't hurt to study.

Q: Is it too early to listen to Christmas music?

A: Absolutely. Not. Play Mariah Carey at full volume if you feel like it. I won't judge you.

Q: Is it appropriate to drink hot chocolate yet?

A: Hot chocolate is gross. Just don't drink it. *

Q: Should I go to the choir, wind ensemble, and jazz band concerts next week?

A: 100% yeah! Go support Coronado's amazingly talented performers!

Q: Who's the best Potty Mouth Writer?

A: Me, Obviously, is that even a question? She's written it like twice. I mean come on; you know you like me better.

Fun Things Happening in Your Hallways

- Although it's technically still a few weeks away, start thinking about finals. They can sneak up on you and it's better to be prepared.
- Pro tip: ~~don't eat yellow snow~~. Don't eat snow. It's really gross. Don't believe me? Melt some snow and see how tasty it looks when it's just warm water.
- Breaking News: writer falls asleep on keyboarddddddddddddddddddddddddddd
- Seniors! If you haven't already, fill out FAFSA. Also, if you haven't started your Common App, the time to get started was roughly a month ago. Get going!
- Freshman! Do you not know what either of those two things I just wrote in the last bullet are? Ignorance is bliss, enjoy free time while you can.
- Potty Mouth Request Form!
