

Cougar Daily's "The Potty Mouth"

4/17/23 – 4/22/23

The Bathroom Sensation That's Sweeping the Nation

Hey there cougars! With only six (five if you're a senior) weeks left in the school year, it seems as though our time together is rapidly getting shorter. It's this time of year that can often feel so crushing for a lot of us. For seniors, maybe you're worried about what your life next year is going to look like. If you're a junior, exams could be looming. For you sophomores, you'll be upperclassmen next year. Freshman, it's finals time again, and with that comes some stress, I know. Regardless of what's on your mind or what you're going through, remember that no problem is so insurmountable that it's going to stay that way forever. The sunny days mean so much to us only because the clouds had to cover the sun for a while. Keep your heads up cougars, I believe in you :)

Some Things You Might Need to Hear Today

- You don't get a chance to start over and that's okay. Everything good that you have now is the sum of everything that's happened before - even the bad stuff.
- There are a lot of people in this world that love you and that will support you no matter how you're feeling.
- You have a really nice smile. Use it whenever you have the chance to.
- You don't have to be everything you want to be today. Just work on getting a little bit closer than you were yesterday.
- People aren't as judgmental as you think. Be confident in yourself, it's a good look for you.
- Not all endings are bad. Embrace change because you never know what's waiting just up the road for you.
- It's okay to act like a little kid sometimes.
- I know this is usually a funny column, but I also want to use this to spread some positivity when I can. I'll be back with another lighthearted segment next week.

Fun Things Happening in Your Hallways

- We're having warm days again which means you get to rediscover which of your classmates still haven't learned the joys of deodorant.
- Congratulations to the cast and crew of CTD's production of Done to Death! The show was absolutely incredible, and we can't wait to see what's in store for next year.
- Braking News: My car no longer stops.
- Hot Take of the Day: not one high school logo is original. Don't believe me? Look up "Houston Cougars Logo" You might have to scroll a bit, but you'll see it.
- Shout out to the boys' volleyball team for their dominant wins over Doherty and Vanguard this past weekend. They're officially 14-2 on the season.
- Breaking News: Photographer crushed by wheel of cheddar. Subjects claim that they had tried to warn her.
