

The Bathroom Sensation That's Sweeping the Nation

Welcome to a new school year at Coronado High School! Whether you're returning, beginning your freshman year, or joining us as a transfer student, we're glad you're here. The Cougar Daily is your student-run news source, dedicated to keeping you informed, connected, and engaged throughout the year. To get started, explore these articles that highlight what's ahead for our Cougar Community!

Summer Sweat Public Service

Coronado High school was built in 1970, before air conditioning was a standard in schools. While some parts of the school have coolers or were built with air conditioning, the majority of the school remains humid. In the summer heat, it is important to use proper protection against sweat and body odor. As the heat takes over and sweat starts dripping, deodorant is rubbing off, and it is essential to reapply your choice of solid/gel deodorant throughout the day for the sake of those around you.

According to *Cosmetics Business, although 92% of teens, 11-19 years old, use deodorant, around 16% reported inconsistent use.

With the lack of ventilation and above average levels of humidity, consistency is key to keeping our school fresh during the remainder of the summer months. With age comes the great responsibility of managing proper hygiene. If deodorant recommendations are needed, kindly consult Google or peers.

Fall Sports Scores

- Boys Golf placed 12th at the Cheyenne Mt. invitational. Miles McClinton finished 17th individually.
- Varsity Girls Softball beat Doherty 13-12.

Arsenic and Old Lace

Coronado High School has announced the fall play production. Arsenic and Old Lace, written by Joseph Kesselring, is about two old women who believe they are providing a service by poisoning old men and burying them in their cellar. This play highlights morbid humor, an extremely eccentric family, and unusual hobbies.

Mrs. Glidewell, Coronado's new theater teacher, embarks on her first year by producing a show that she herself produced in her high school years.

The theater department is looking for actors to star in their fall production. Auditions start August 28th and end the 29th. Hurry before Auditions close and all the good roles are gone!
