The Bathroom Sensation That's Sweeping the Nation

We now return to "The Potty Mouth." If you didn't get your school picture yet, or if you didn't like it, then good news! Picture retakes are on Monday September 22. Don't forget to smile 😊.

Students' Gun Violence Protest

Students all across Colorado are walking out in protest of gun violence. According to CBS, students at Thompson Valley High School, along with other Colorado high schools, walked out last Friday at 10:01 a.m. Mesa Ridge High School and our own Coronado High School walked out at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

Mesa Ridge High School had planned to do their protest on September 12, but they were put into a hold due to reports of students having guns on campus.

These protests come in light of the Evergreen High School shooting that happened last Wednesday, September 10. Stay safe, Cougars.

Teacher Strike

Wednesday, October 8, during Coronado's Homecoming week, 91% of D11 teachers will take part in the protest. According to KKTU11 News, "The decision came after the district voted to end its decades-long Master Agreement."

The agreement with the Colorado Springs Education Association had been in place for 56 years until its cancellation last December. The Master Agreement mapped out teachers' salaries, working conditions and benefits.

The strikes will begin at 7:30 a.m. in front of the school buildings and end in Downtown Colorado Springs at Acacia Park at 2:30 p.m. Despite the teacher strike, substitutes will still come in to teach classes.
