

Cougar Daily's "The Potty Mouth" 10/2-10/8

The Bathroom Sensation That's Sweeping the Nation

This week, we're super excited to share some information about the "Bedazzle The Bald" fundraiser along with Coronado football's huge 40-22 win against Berthoud. We're really hoping you'll enjoy these as much as we do!

Bedazzle The Bald!?

Cougars, are you ready for one of the funniest fundraisers you'll see at Coronado!

Bedazzle the Bald is set to kick off during Homecoming week with six teachers: Mr. Urban, Mr. Hartman, Mr. Philipsen, Mr. Edmund, and Mr. Nash. They are volunteering to potentially be made fun of the whole day. On Monday, October 6th, the top three teachers with the most votes will have their heads bedazzled and wear the style from the start and end of school.

Now here's where you come in: from September 29th through October 3rd, stop by the Cougars Care table at lunch or after school to buy raffle tickets. Tickets are just $1 each! You'll place your ticket in the bucket of the teacher you'd like to see bedazzled.

Here's the fun part: if you write your name on your ticket, you may even get to do the bedazzling yourself! Four names will be drawn from each bucket to determine the winner. This event is being organized by two students in Cougars Care, Class of 2027, Skylar Corbett, and Class of 2028, Karina Jarboe.

Huge Win for Coronado Football

The Cougars recently won a key game against Berthoud High School with a 40-22 score and are aiming to rest up this week with a bye week.

Thomas Buckmiller, statistically the number one quarterback in Colorado, led the charge with 335 all-purpose yards along with 3 passing touchdowns and 2 touchdowns on the ground. The Cougars are set to have their best season since 2013 when Coronado won the State Championship.

As of now, they are in 1st place in 3A Southern Football. Coronado's next game will be against Pueblo County (Homecoming game) next Friday at 7:00 p.m.
