

Cougar Daily's "The Potty Mouth"

10/16-10/22

The Bathroom Sensation That's Sweeping the Nation

This week, it's not your typical "fun" Potty Mouth, but instead it's informational about the D11 teacher strike as well as Coronado football's historic 10-7 Homecoming win against Pueblo County. We're really hoping you'll enjoy these articles!

D11 Teacher Strike

As many of you noticed, we had a lack of teachers in classrooms on October 8th. I'm sure you're wondering why?

On Wednesday, hundreds of teachers in District 11 walked out in a one-day strike to protest the district's decision to terminate a decades-old agreement.

For 56 years, teachers in D11 taught under a "master agreement." The agreement maintained salaries, benefits, working conditions, and various protections. In December 2024, D11's school board voted to let it expire and replaced it with a district "handbook" that removed guaranteed rights.

The strike marked the first teachers' walkout in El Paso County in 50 years. Dozens of educators and supporters came together at Acacia Park and rallied, letting their voices be heard.

With teachers back in classrooms but the attention of the community captured, all eyes are on D11 in November when they conduct their board elections. Regardless, we need to stand with our teachers because they have our best interests at heart.

Coronado Football History!?

The Cougars recently ended a nearly decade-long drought with a nailbiting 10-7 homecoming win over visiting Pueblo County!

Class of 2026 kicker, Ethan York, sealed the game with a clutch field goal to win their first homecoming victory since 2017. Lyrik Smith scored the lone touchdown to help take down Pueblo County.

With the win, Coronado advances to 4-2 on the season. The Cougars host Canon City (3-3) on Friday, October 17, in a league game. Come support your Cougars by being there (or be square)!
