Finals Week...

Cougars, finals week is approaching very fast. Struggling to focus? Try breaking your studying into short, 25-minute blocks with quick 5-minute breaks in between (personal preference). Try putting your phone down and on "Do Not Disturb." Grab a snack and make a simple checklist for each class.

It's natural to feel nervous and maybe even a little anxious during this time. Believe in yourself! It goes a long way. Trust your preparation and give it your best shot.

Just a reminder, Monday, December 15th is still the normal late start 1-8 schedule, then finals officially begin Tuesday, December 16th. Good luck out there, Cougars. Keep a positive mindset and stay safe during a much-needed winter break!
